

The Presenter's Field Book 3rd Edition
Robert J. Garmston
Rowman & Littlefield
2018

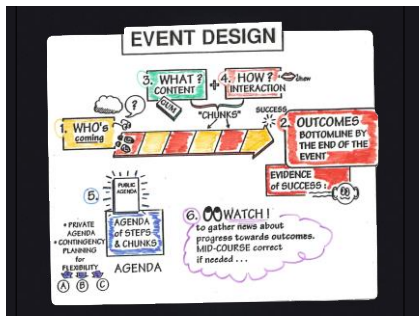

Rethinking Presentations

Proper presentations have the and transform people and a book about the art of current knowledge about describes best practices for debriefing, and growing from experience. Some highlights two- minute speech, getting own skin, overcoming and audience fatigue, and how personal digital devices in power to persuade organizations. This is presenting. Using learning, this book designing, delivering, the presenting include how to give a comfortable in your resistance to de-demonize the training rooms today.

What's New!

A Baily-Garmston Event Design for planning lessons, workshops, seminars or even meetings.....and

- Making the first 5 minutes magical,
- Using interactive presentation technology,
- Attending to cultural mindfulness.
- Distinguishing aims, outcomes, and goals
- Giving directions that make audiences feel smart
- Recommending some new seminar music
- Activating internal resources non linearly
- Getting comfortable in your own skin

This third edition continues to be a guidebook for anyone who has ever stood before a group to make a presentation – novices and experts alike. For novices the book provides a respected foundation upon which to enhance learning for adults. For experienced presenters it offers an opportunity to fine-tune your work in specific areas. For the specialist, professor, or trainer of those teaching adults, it serves as a curriculum guide

New Sections Contributed by Colleagues

- Ochan Kasuma-Powell
- Carolyn McKanders
- Jim Roussin
- Lynn Sawyer
- Kendall Zoller

And

A Free Study Group Facilitation Guide
by Bob Garmston & Michael Dolcemascolo

Link to the Free Study Guide